

ladybug

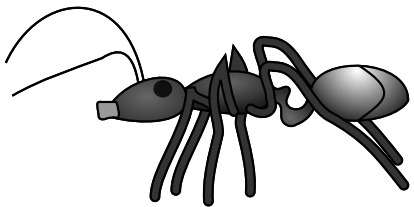

honey bee

mantis

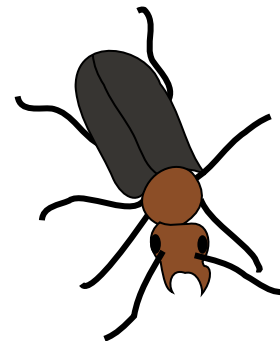

butterfly

ant

Beneficial insects help the garden and farm. They pollinate plants, collect garbage, help the soil and eat pests that destroy crops.

beneficial insects

soldier beetle

Butterflies and bees are pollinators. Ladybugs, mantises and soldier beetles eat pests. Ants keep soil loose for plant growth.

some facts